

POSTAL NOTICE.

Madras, 4th July 1883.

Arrangements have been made for the sorting in the Railway Mail Service carriages of letters intended for delivery at the various Suburban Post Offices in Madras. The effect of these arrangements is that the Mail bags for Suburban Post Offices are sent in Mail Carts direct from the Central Railway Station to their destinations and are there made over to the Postmen for delivery instead of being sent as formerly to the General Post Office where the Mails for the Suburban Post Offices were sorted. The delivery of letters is, by this arrangement, accelerated by at least one hour.

For the purpose of this Suburban delivery, Madras has been divided into Postal Districts as given below, and letters bearing the name of the Postal District for which they are intended will meet with no delay, whereas letters addressed merely Madras may be subjected to delay in having to be sent to the General Post Office for fuller information as to whereabouts of the addressee. The public by having the name of the Postal District written on their correspondence can therefore not only assist the Post Office but ensure prompt delivery of their own correspondence.
